Uniform

Thanks to parents who have encouraged their children to wear the correct Hallam Senior College uniform. Over the past two weeks our young people have been made reminded that the school community expects students to wear the full school uniform when at school. It is good to see that our students are responding well to this expectation.

A few reminders:

- Only black or blue uniform pants - never jeans
- Leggings - whether fashion or training types such as skins- are never acceptable unless worn underneath a skirt, dress or shorts
- If you are having difficulties obtaining a school uniform, contact the school for assistance
- Uniform requirements can be found on our website or in the student program guide
- Staff will continue to request that students who are inappropriately dressed for school change into school uniform

Our school uniform has been designed by the school community - students, parents and staff. Students wear the school uniform because this shows that they belong to the Hallam Senior College community of learners. When a student puts on their school uniform and walks into the school, they are showing that they are ready for the business of learning at Hallam Senior College.

Up & Go's for Breakfast

The College would like to extend a huge thank you to 'ACE Foundation: Aiding Casey education' for their on-going support to the College. They are providing Up & Go's for students who don't always have time for breakfast to ensure they aren't hungry throughout the morning and are prepared to learn. The students are enjoying having them and have been grateful for the support.

Student Drivers

Any students driving to and from school must park in the gate 3 car park. Students must register their vehicle with the College to obtain a parking permit. Students are also reminded that staff at the College have a responsibility to report any unsafe driving or any behaviour that is not considered legal under probationary (P-plate) drivers license law.

If students have any questions regarding the College student drivers policy they can speak with Mr Caughey, Ms Bowling or Mr Lyaal.

The Escapees Theatre Company Event Cancelled

It is with heavy hearts and great sadness that the Escapees must announce the upcoming show "For The Love of Disney" has been cancelled. They have been awaiting permission from Disney for the show to go ahead and were hopeful and optimistic that they would receive support in their ambition to create something special for the audience. They were informed recently that Disney's Melbourne office, in conjunction with Disney's U.S. legal team, have denied them permission to perform the family-friendly and fun-loving tribute to Disney's magical films, a mere eight days prior to the show's opening. We are so sorry to disappoint all those who were excited to join us next week. Rest assured the Escapees' next show will be bigger and better than ever and we thank everyone for their support and understanding at this time.

Trades Gala Dinner

Last night, Thursday 16th June 2016, Hallam Senior College hosted its inaugural Trades Gala Dinner. Eighty guests, including representatives from local businesses, School Council, Monash University, neighbouring schools and the parent body enjoyed a delicious progressive dinner prepared by the College's hospitality students under the guidance of Chef Wolfgang Kessler.

Guests toured Hallam Senior College's Hair & Beauty facilities and watched students at work while Maria Pradolini described these programs. This was followed by a tour of the Traditional Trades facility where students enthusiastically explained the work that the College's Automotive, Building and Furniture Making students do as they hone their skills under the guidance of Joe Varga, Rodney Triegaardt, John Akers and Clive Rogers.

The dinner was introduced by former students, Karly Tapner, an awarded plumbing apprentice, and Matt Litten, now a fully qualified mechanic. They spoke about the rewards that pursuing a career in the traditional trades can bring.

Scott Kirkby, Leader of the Traditional Trades sub school, says that the school is already looking forward to next year's Trades Gala Dinner.

We thank students, staff and all who attended for making this such a wonderful event.
